5. Archiving (physical)

Greg got in touch with his predecessor, who told him the previously bound Nexus issues were made by the Camosun Print Shop at a cost of $40 per volume. Greg will reconnect with the Camosun Print Shop for an updated quote on the cost of binding the remainder of Nexus' physical archives.

6. Website Development

Greg has emailed the volunteer web developer and is waiting to hear back.

7. Referendum Preparations

The campaign period is October 2 to October 23. Nexus is able to get coffee, which will be served at campaign tables, through the Camosun College Student Society (CCSS). Greg will contact current Nexus volunteers and staff members to see if any of them are able to volunteer at the campaign tables. The current working schedule for campaign tabling is:

Sam:

Mondays (October 7 and 21): 11:30 - 2:30PM, Interurban.

Tuesday (October 8): 11:30 - 2:30PM, Lansdowne.

Max:

Thursdays (October 3 and 17): 11:30 - 2:30PM, Lansdowne

Tuesday (October 8): 11:30 - 2:30PM, Lansdowne

Jaxson:

Tuesdays (October 15 and 22): 11:30 - 2:15PM, Interurban

Coffee will be served at Lansdowne on October 8 and at Interurban on October 21.

Max will make some black and white posters for the referendum campaign and send them to Greg to be printed at the Nexus office. Jaxson will pick up the posters from the Nexus office and put them up at both campuses after they get approved by the CCSS.

8. Hanna Shultis Absence

Greg hasn't heard back from Hanna since reaching out to her during the last board meeting. Max moved to remove Hanna from the board, which was unanimously approved.

9. Adjourn
